FACTSHEET: 10-Step Guide for Supervised Clinical Practice

1. Appoint a clinical supervisor for the re-entrant
2. Re-entrant commences/continues pre-learning
3. Assess re-entrant against discipline specific standards
4. Clinical supervisor and re-entrant develop a learning plan
5. Clinical supervisor and re-entrant decide on frequency, structure and duration of supervision sessions
6. Supervision sessions are well-documented
7. Increase complexity and variety of caseload as able
8. Reassess competence against discipline specific standards
9. Clinical supervisor reports results of assessment to re-entrant’s competence to professional body as required
10. Re-entrant applies for removal of registration with conditions and/or accreditation from professional body, as required

Please refer to PART 4 of the Return to Clinical Practice Guidelines for more detailed information on the requirements for supervised clinical practice.