7 POLICY

7.1 Requirement to Notify Queensland Health

An employee charged or convicted of an indictable offence is to immediately notify their manager in writing.

7.2 Indictable Offence

The Criminal Code Act 1899 specifies that offences may be criminal offences or regulatory offences.

Criminal offences comprise crimes, misdemeanours and simple offences.

Crimes and misdemeanours are indictable offences. An indictable offence is a more serious offence. Charges of an indictable offence are usually heard before a judge and jury.

Regulatory and simple offences may be heard by a Magistrates Court without a jury.

8 APPLYING THE POLICY

An employee who has been charged or convicted with an indictable offence is required to provide written advice to the delegate immediately after being charged or convicted stating that they have been charged or convicted and details of the alleged offence/offences.

9 DEFINITIONS

Convicted	Includes a finding of guilt, whether or not a conviction is recorded.
Indictable Offence	An offence for which a charge may be laid by indictment or an equivalent process, whether that is the only, or an optional, way to lay a charge of the offence.
Misdemeanours	Crimes and misdemeanours are indictable offences; that is to say, the offenders can not, unless otherwise expressly stated, be prosecuted or convicted except upon indictment.

10 HISTORY

July 2008	Amended to reflect Public Service Regulations 2008
April 2008	Developed as a result of the HR Policy Framework consolidation project as an introduction document.
