

Working with the community, clinicians, government and non-government partners

“ The Minister for Health is responsible for a wide range of statutory authorities and is required to table audited financial accounts and an annual report in Parliament. The roles of the statutory authorities are important to the delivery and regulation of health services in Queensland. ”

Hospital foundations

Hospital foundations are constituted under the Hospitals Foundations Act 1982. The objects of the foundations are to acquire, manage and apply property and any associated income to continuing projects within or associated with their respective hospitals. The following hospital foundations report directly to the Minister for Health:

- Bundaberg Health Services Foundation
- Far North Queensland Hospital Foundation
- Gold Coast Hospital Foundation
- Ipswich Hospital Foundation
- PA Foundation
- The Prince Charles Hospital Foundation
- Redcliffe Hospital Foundation
- Royal Brisbane and Women's Hospital Research Foundation
- Royal Children's Hospital Foundation
- Sunshine Coast Health Foundation
- Toowoomba Hospital Foundation
- Townsville Hospital Foundation

- The Queensland Nursing Council: established to provide for the registration and enrolment of nurses, accreditation of nursing courses, and establishment of standards of conduct within the profession.

Other statutory bodies

- Health Rights Commission
- Health Rights Advisory Council
- Mental Health Court
- Mental Health Review Tribunal
- Optometrists Drug Authority Committee
- Panels of Assessors
- Nursing Tribunal
- The Council of the Queensland Institute of Medical Research
- Queensland Institute of Medical Research Trust
- Radiation Advisory Council

Professional registration bodies

The undermentioned 13 health practitioner registration boards are supported by the Office of Health Practitioner Registration Boards. Each health practitioner registration board is established under individual legislation with the primary function of registering their professional group and to ensure health care is delivered by registrants in a professional, safe and competent way.
