14/01/2010	Invited by Australian Association of Clinical Biochemist to present 2 talks on latest developments in Mass spectrometry at Asia Pacific Chromatography and Mass Spectrometry conference	$2,500	Australian Association of Clinical Biochemists	Brett McWhinney	Retained by Individual	Attendance at the Asia Pacific Chromatography & Mass Spectrometry Conference allowed me to see first hand the recent advances in Mass Spectrometry. Due to the rapidly changing areas in this field it is essential that QH employees be seen at these international conferences. Discussions were held & this will ultimately lead to the development of new assays to meet the future needs of our requesting clinicians and their clinical management of QH patients. Attendance at the conference also allowed me to establish a number of contacts with leading international laboratories and has furthered Pathology Queensland knowledge and expertise in Mass Spectrometry.
