Sexual

Service

YOUR BODY BELONGS TO YOU. YOU GOT TO LOOK AFTER IT GOOD WAY.

You don't have to take it when a man tries to make you go with him. That's not love, that's abuse. Even when it's someone you know.

It's assault when

- a man tries to make you go with him when you don't want to
- a man tries to make you go with him even if you tell him 'no'
- Someone talks dirty to you
- Touches you when you don't like it
- Someone forces you to have sex, or won't leave you alone, even when they know you don't like it

Don't be shame, you are not to blame. Let people know how you feel. You can call the BSAS Crisis Service 24 hours on 36365206 if you had this trouble lately.

BSAS Crisis Service can help you, and your privacy is always respected. They can help you with

- someone to talk to
- help from the doctor
- emergency birth control
- information and support

Even if you had this problem in the last 12 months, they can help you.

THEY CAN HELP

- if you want to go to Police
- go back to the doctor
- how to get help near you

Even if you don't want to go to Police, they can help you by referring you to someone else.

It's a free service, and they won't tell other people the things you've said. You don't even have to tell them your name. They will respect your right to make your own decisions.
