

Nephrology training preference guide

RMO Campaign 2023

In Queensland, advanced training positions in Nephrology are managed centrally through the Queensland Advanced Training in Nephrology Program. Applicants must familiarise themselves with the requirements outlined on the Queensland Advanced Training in Nephrology Program webpage.

New and current trainees need to complete the Queensland Advanced Training in Nephrology Program section within the online RMO application to be considered.

Queensland Nephrology Advanced Training Program

Are you applying for a position on the Queensland Nephrology Advanced Training Program?

Please visit the Queensland Nephrology Advanced Training Program website for further details on applying for a position. *

RMO Application: Step 10 Preferences

At Step 10: Preferences of the online RMO application, applicants who wish to apply to the training program MUST complete their 1st preference as follows:

The screenshot shows a form with four dropdown menus, each with a red box highlighting the selected option:

- What is your first preferred facility? *
College/Pathway/Network (Determined)
- What is your first preferred position? *
Registrar
- What is your first preferred Specialty? *
Medicine
- What is your first preferred Sub-Specialty? *
Nephrology (AT)

As up to 5 preferences may be recorded as part of the application, it is recommended that applicants utilise a lower preference to indicate which positions they may be interested in if they are not selected to their preferred positions. You can search for alternative vacancies by using the Position search tool on the RMO website.

For further information on the individual facilities including contact details, please refer the Participating hospital contacts and facility profiles page on the RMO Campaign website.
