

Pain Medicine training preference guide

RMO Campaign 2023

The Faculty of Pain Medicine ANZCA (FPM) is responsible for the education and training, examination and specialist accreditation of pain medicine physicians across Australia. To be selected onto the Training Program with FPM, new and prospective trainees must be employed by an accredited training facility.

In Queensland, to be selected to a training position within an accredited training facility, applicants MUST apply via RMO Campaign portal. For further information on the individual facilities including contact details, please refer the Participating hospital contacts and profiles page on the RMO Campaign website.

RMO application: Step 10 Preferences

At Step 10: Preferences of the online RMO application, to be considered you MUST complete your preferences by selecting individual facilities:

What is your first preferred facility? * <input type="text" value="Sunshine Coast University Hospital"/>	What is your first preferred facility? * <input type="text" value="Townsville University Hospital"/>
What is your first preferred position? * <input type="text" value="Registrar"/>	What is your first preferred position? * <input type="text" value="Principal House Officer"/>
What is your first preferred Specialty? * <input type="text" value="Pain Medicine"/>	What is your first preferred Specialty? * <input type="text" value="Pain Medicine"/>
What is your first preferred Sub-Specialty? * <input type="text" value="None (Pain)"/>	What is your first preferred Sub-Specialty? * <input type="text" value="None (Pain)"/>

The above is illustrative only and is not suggestive as to the exact order in which facilities should be preferred

As up to 5 preferences may be recorded as part of the application, it is recommended that applicants utilise a lower preference to indicate which positions they may be interested in if they are not selected their preferred position. You can search for alternative vacancies by using the Position search tool on the RMO website.
