

Centre for Palliative Care Research and Education

Hosted by Metro North Hospital and Health Service Putting people first certifies that attended the

Palliative Care Master Class series: Continuous Subcutaneous Infusions

4 x 30 minutes via MS Teams

August 2020

Kym Griffin
Research Officer
Centre for Palliative Care
Research and Education

2 hours contact time
Continuing Professional Development
Australian Health Practitioner Regulation Agency

Speakers:

Kym Griffin, Research Officer, Centre for Palliative Care Research and Education

Dr Sherie John, Territory Manager, REM Systems-Paragon Care

Tony Hall, Clinical Pharmacist & Senior Lecturer, Queensland University of Technology

Program:

Principles of Management of Subcutaneous Infusions

- Confirm understanding of use of subcutaneous infusions in palliative care
- Review principles for safe practice in managing a subcutaneous infusion via a device
- Increase understanding of assessment and troubleshooting issues managing a subcutaneous infusion via a device

About the T34 [Niki] Infusion Device

- Increase understanding of manufacturer's guidelines
- Increase understanding of safety features of this commonly used device

Medications commonly used at end of life

- Increase understanding of drugs commonly used at end of life

Drug stability and continuous subcutaneous infusions in palliative care

- Increase understanding of drug compatibilities
- Review drug safety (stability) for subcutaneous infusions