

Application to the Chief Psychiatrist: DECLARATION of a Change to an Authorised Mental Health Service

Mental Health Act 2016 (MHA 2016), chapter 11, part 2

Under section 329, the Chief Psychiatrist may, by gazette notice, declare a health service providing treatment and care to persons who have a mental illness to be an authorised mental health service.

If the health service is not a public sector health service, the declaration may only be made with the written agreement of the health service.

The declaration may include conditions the Chief Psychiatrist considers appropriate.

An authorised mental health service will:

- ensure the protection of the rights of involuntary patients under the MHA 2016;
- ensure the involuntary admission, assessment and treatment of persons complies with the MHA 2016;
- facilitate the proper and efficient administration of the MHA 2016; and
- meet, and continue to meet, the criteria for the declaration as an authorised mental health service.
