

Rehabilitation Medicine training preference guide

RMO Campaign 2023

The Australasian Faculty of Rehabilitation Medicine (AFRM), a Faculty of the Royal Australasian College of Physicians (RACP), provides training and continuing education for Rehabilitation Medicine Fellows and trainees throughout all stages of their career. If you would like to apply for an accredited rehabilitation training position in Queensland for 2023, you are encouraged to submit an application via the RMO Campaign applicant portal and preference as per below. This voluntary process will enable you to participate in a centralised selection process, involving ranking of candidates via curriculum vitae and interview.

In addition to applying through the RMO campaign, you should express interest to the local supervisor at sites you wish to be considered for. Please email rehabregistrarsqld@gmail.com for the list of available positions and supervisor email addresses. There are a number of additional training sites who recruit independently of this process and should be contacted directly.

RMO Application: Step 10 Preferences

At Step 10: Preferences of the online RMO application, applicants who wish to apply for the position/s listed below, are advised to enter the combinations as displayed:

What is your first preferred facility? *
College/Pathway/Network (Determined) <input type="button" value="v"/>
What is your first preferred position? *
Registrar <input type="button" value="v"/>
What is your first preferred Specialty? *
Rehabilitation <input type="button" value="v"/>
What is your first preferred Sub-Specialty? *
None (Rehab) <input type="button" value="v"/>

Up to 5 preferences may be recorded as part of the application, it is recommended that applicants utilise a lower preference to indicate which positions they may be interested in if they are not selected to their 1st preference. You can search for alternative vacancies by using the Position search tool on the RMO website.

For further information on the individual facilities including contact details, please refer the Participating hospital contacts and profiles page on the RMO Campaign website.
