Training preference guide
RMO Campaign 2020

The Australasian Faculty of Rehabilitation Medicine (AFRM), a Faculty of the Royal Australasian College of Physicians (RACP), provides training and continuing education for Rehabilitation Medicine Fellows and trainees throughout all stages of their career. To be selected onto the training program, applicants must first secure a position with an accredited training facility.

In Queensland, to secure a position within an accredited training facility, applicants MUST submit an application via RMO Campaign portal. For further information on the individual facilities including contact details, please refer the Participating hospital contacts and profiles page on the RMO Campaign website.

RMO application: Step 10 Preferences

Applicants who are on or have applied to be selected onto the Training Program, MUST complete their 1st preference as follows:

As up to 5 preferences may be recorded as part of the application, it is recommended that applicants utilise a lower preference to indicate which positions they may be interested in if they are not selected to their preferred position. You can search for alternative vacancies by using the Position search tool on the RMO website.
