General Surgery (Registrar) SET 2-5 Training preference guide

RMO Campaign 2020

Selection to SET 2-5 General Surgery Registrar positions in Queensland are managed by the Royal Australasian College of Surgeons (RACS). Applicants need to apply directly to RACS for a training position in General Surgery.

In Queensland, for an employment contract to be issued by your allocated training facility, applicants MUST ALSO submit an application via the RMO Campaign portal.

Selection to General Surgery SET 1 Principal House Officer positions in Queensland are managed centrally by Dr Vijay Kanagarajah (Surgeon, Princess Alexandra Hospital). Applicants interested in general surgery must review the General Surgery SET 1 Preference guide.

RMO application: Step 10 Preferences

In Step 10: Preferences section of the online RMO application, to be considered you MUST complete your preference by selecting the following:

As up to 5 preferences may be recorded as part of the application, it is recommended that applicants utilise a lower preference to indicate which positions they may be interested in if they are not selected to their preferred position. You can search for alternative vacancies by using the Position search tool on the RMO website.

For further information on the individual facilities including contact details, please refer the Participating hospital contacts and profiles page on the RMO Campaign website.
