

DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH GIFTS and BENEFITS REGISTER
July 2020 to September 2020

Date Given or Received	Description of Gift or Benefit	Value	Name of Donor	Name of Recipient	Gifts Received: a) Retained by Employee or b) Retained by Qhealth	Reasons for Accepting or Giving (what is the benefit to the Qld Community)
18/06/2020	Invitation for Dr Young and a guest to attend function Titans v Dragons Rugby League Game at Suncorp Stadium, Brisbane on 20 June 2020	$200	Steve Mitchell, Titans Rugby League	Jeanette Young	a	Outcome of COVID19 restrictions returning of 2000 spectators to the venue another major step forward in the return to normality after the COVID-19 crisis.
11/08/2020	Invitation to Brisbane Festival Official Opening 4 September 2020	$150	Alison Smith, Brisfest 2020	Jeanette Young	a	Outcome of COVID19 restrictions being able to continue with the Brisbane Festival to help the local economy.
25/06/2020	Stipend	$274	Queensland University of Technology	Adayette Nandini	a	Dr Adayapalam Nandini has been requested to mark a case reports based dissertation for the Masters in Diagnostic Genomics course conducted by Queensland University of Technology. Participation in these academic activities will contribute to Dr Nandini's experience and will provide valuable insight to supervise staff that are enrolled for this course within the Pathology Queensland Cytogenetics Department.
4/08/2020	Meals, Taxi/private vehicle use	$506	National Association of Testing Authorities (NATA)	Annette Van Wessem	a	Ms Annie Van Wessem was invited by NATA to attend assessments in Brisbane and Toowoomba to determine if ongoing accreditation of laboratories can be granted. Assessments are important for ensuring compliance with national standards and are mandatory for ongoing accreditation of testing laboratories. Involvement in NATA assessment enhances knowledge which can be applied to ensuring quality within laboratory.
2/09/2020	Flights, Accommodation, Meals, Taxi	$1,310	National Association of Testing Authorities (NATA)	Alinette Munteanu	a	Ms Alina Munteanu was invited by NATA to attend assessments in Brisbane and Mackay to determine if ongoing accreditation of laboratories can be granted. Assessments are important for ensuring compliance with national standards and are mandatory for ongoing accreditation of testing laboratories. Involvement in NATA assessment enhances knowledge which can be applied to ensuring quality within laboratory.

DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH GIFTS and BENEFITS REGISTER
July 2020 to September 2020

Date Given or Received	Description of Gift or Benefit	Value	Name of Donor	Name of Recipient	Gifts Received: a) Retained by Employee or b) Retained by Qhealth	Reasons for Accepting or Giving (what is the benefit to the Qld Community)
6/08/2020	Jewellery	$3,299	Late member of the public	Guilette Daley	a	The late member of the public's dying wish be that a necklace be given freely to Ms Daley. The husband has affirmed by statutory declaration that this was the express wish of the late member of the public. Under the Financial Management Practice Manual circular 8/2010 and the Public Service Commission directives 22/09, this gift is outlined as an exceptional circumstance.
5/06/2020	2 x Indigenous Artworks	>$150	Petra Diamond	Jarrette Thorne	b	Gift of appreciation. 2 x Indigenous/cultural artworks painted by a local resident at Bribie Island. The donor was insistent that the Bribie Island Ambulance Station accept the artwork as a way of thanking the local paramedics for their valued work in the community. The artwork will be displayed at the Bribie Island Ambulance Station as was the intention of the donor and approved by the Assistant Commissioner, Metro North Local Ambulance Service Network.