

Textual Transcript

Queensland Health

Queensland Haemophilia Centre/ Haemophilia Foundation Australia Television Commercial

November 2004

- Scene 1: Fade up to young man in a mechanical/carpenters workshop. Emotive instrumental music plays in the background.
- Young Man #1: There's a chance you'll never meet a guy like me.
- Scene 2: A mother and her son in the kitchen.
- Mother: My boy is one in six-thousand.
- Scene3: A middle aged man at a football field, teenagers playing football in the background.
- Older man # 1: There's nothing particularly special about me.
- Scene 4: Another young man standing in front of a building.
- Young man #2: Except one small thing
- Scene 5: An older man standing in his front garden.
- Older man #2: I was born without an important factor in my blood which helps it clot when I'm injured.
- Scene 6: Older man #1 at football field, teenagers playing football in the background.
- Older man #1: And no, I won't bleed to death if I cut myself shaving.
- Scene 7: Young man #1 in workshop.
- Young man # 1: It's mostly problems in my joints, knees and elbows, that's what I got to watch out for.
- Scene 8: Young man #2 in front of building.
- Young man #2: It doesn't stop me doing most things.
- Scene 9: Mother and her son in the kitchen.
- Son: I just have to be a little more careful than most.

Scene 10:

Logo: Haemophilia Foundation Australia
www.haemophilia.org.au
freecall* 1800 807 173
*excluding mobile phones.

Music fades out.

Ends.