

Gastroenterology training preference guide

RMO Campaign 2023

In Queensland, selection to first and second year of advanced training in Gastroenterology are managed centrally by the Queensland Gastroenterology Advanced Training Program. All trainees are guaranteed two core years of gastroenterology advanced training, subject to satisfactory performance review. After the completion of the first year, trainees must apply via the RMO campaign for their second core year, preferencing the five hospitals which have advanced training positions. For information refer to the Queensland Gastroenterology Advanced Training Program webpage.

Applicants need to complete the Gastroenterology Advanced Training Program section within the online RMO application by clicking 'Yes' to the questions below;
