Mental Health Act (MHA) 2016

- The Chief Psychiatrist can direct a psychiatrist report for a person charged with a serious offence:
  - at the request of the person, or another person authorised to make the request on their behalf, or
  - on the Chief Psychiatrist's own initiative.
- A direction for a psychiatrist report on the Chief Psychiatrist's own initiative can only be made if the Chief Psychiatrist is satisfied:
  - the person may have been of unsound mind in relation to the offence or may be unfit for trial, and
  - the psychiatrist report is in the public interest.
- Also, the Chief Psychiatrist can direct a second psychiatrist report if matters addressed in the first psychiatrist report require further examination.
