

Ten top tips for talking with people with aphasia

Use pen and paper

Say one thing at a time

Don't pretend you understand

Don't rush – slow down, be patient

Draw diagrams or pictures

Write down key words

Relax – be natural

Recap – check you both understand

Ask what helps

Reduce background noise

Connect is a charity for people living with aphasia, a communication disability which usually occurs after stroke.

At Connect, people with aphasia:

- develop and deliver services they need and want
- are active collaborators – informing, driving and improving all we do.

Together, we:

- provide training and consultancy to service providers
- offer information and support to help everyone understand aphasia and its impact
- champion the rights of people with aphasia.
