In Queensland, Palliative Medicine Advanced Training positions (including Diploma positions) are managed centrally through the Queensland Palliative Medicine Training Pathway. Applicants should consult the Queensland Palliative Medicine Advanced Training webpage for eligibility, role description and accredited training facility information.

New and current trainee applicants interested in applying for an Advanced Trainee or Diploma training position, need to answer ‘yes’ in Section 7 of the RMO application: Are you applying for a position on the Queensland Palliative Medicine Advanced Training Pathway?

Are you applying for a position on the Queensland Palliative Medicine Advanced Training Pathway?

To assist with your application to the Palliative Medicine Advanced Training Pathway and further information on the Diploma of Palliative Medicine, please refer to the Queensland Palliative Medicine Advanced Training Pathway website.

- Yes
- No

After you have nominated YES and completed the subsequent questions, you will be asked to select your most preferred training facility/service from the list below for the 1st half of 2021 and 2nd half of 2021. Training placements are usually six months in duration, however in some cases may be up to 12 months. You will also need to select an additional facility preference for either the 1st or 2nd half or the entire 2021 training year.

Select your most preferred training facility/service for the first half of the 2021 training year:

Preferences indicated DO NOT guarantee you an allocated position to the hospital of your choice. Training placements are usually 6 months with some being 12 months in duration (to complete two modules of training). It is therefore important that you select your most preferred facilities/services for both the first and the second half of the 2021 training year.

---

Select your most preferred training facility/service for the second half of the 2021 training year:

---

Select an additional facility/service for training placement which may be either the first half, second half or the entire 2021 training year:
