Neurology

Training preference guide

RMO Campaign 2020

The Australian and New Zealand Association of Neurologists (ANZAN) is responsible for matching trainees to jobs across Australia. ANZAN has significant input into education, specialist training, practice guidelines in partnership with the Royal Australasian College of Physicians (RACP), whom oversees the training of neurologists.

In Queensland, for an employment contract to be issued by your allocated training facility, applicants MUST ALSO submit an application via the RMO Campaign portal.

RMO application: Step 10 Preferences

Applicants who are on or have applied to be selected onto Advanced Training in Neurology are advised to preference as follows:

As up to 5 preferences may be recorded as part of the application, it is recommended that applicants utilise a lower preference to indicate which positions they may be interested in if they are not selected to their preferred position. You can search for alternative vacancies by using the Position search tool on the RMO website.

For further information on the individual facilities including contact details, please refer the Participating hospital contacts and profiles page on the RMO Campaign website.