

Why is food important?

We need food:

To grow and repair our bodies

To provide energy for work and play

For protection against sickness

To keep us strong, healthy and alive

