

For First Nations Health Professionals
in Queensland

Statewide Clinical Yarning Circle

Hosted by the PallConsult First Nations Palliative Care Project, this Yarning Circle aims to provide leadership and collaborative education to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander health professionals concerning aspects of end-of-life care for adults and children. Topics will be hosted by clinical specialists.

Suitable for First Nations health professionals working across hospital, community, children's health, aged care and allied health settings in Queensland.

Scan the QR code to register or call 07 3338 9023
for more information

BOOK YOUR SPOT

SAVE THE DATES

2025

27 May
29 July
30 September
25 November

Hosted via Microsoft Teams

✉ | FirstNations-PallConsult@health.qld.gov.au

Featured artwork: Connected to Country and Family by Leah Cummins

The PallConsult First Nations Palliative Care Project is funded by Queensland Health

Queensland Government