Endocrinology
Training preference guide
RMO Campaign 2020

In Queensland, Advanced Training in Endocrinology is managed centrally by a panel comprised of Endocrinology Unit Directors from accredited training facilities. For information on eligibility and other key recruitment details, please refer to the Queensland Endocrinology Advanced Training Program webpage.

RMO application: Step 10 Preferences

New applicants

At Step 10: Preferences section of the online RMO application, to be considered by the Endocrinology Advanced Training Program, new applicants MUST complete the first preference as follows:

1. College/Pathway/Network (Determined)
2. Registrar
3. Medicine
4. Endocrinology (Med) (AT)

Once you have completed your preferences, in the text box provided new applicants must also indicate, in order of personal preference, the facilities they are willing to work in (1 being the highest). DO NOT list a facility if you are not willing to accept a position.

Continuing trainees (2\textsuperscript{nd} and 3\textsuperscript{rd} year)

Continuing Endocrinology advanced trainees, at Step 10: Preferences section of the online RMO application, trainees must preference their allocated training facility as their 1\textsuperscript{st} preference:

The above is illustrative only and is not suggestive as to the exact order in which facilities should be preferred.

As up to 5 preferences may be recorded as part of the application, it is recommended that applicants utilise a lower preference to indicate which positions they may be interested in if they are not selected to their preferred position. You can search for alternative vacancies by using the Position search tool on the RMO website.

For further information on the individual facilities including contact details, please refer the Participating hospital contacts and profiles page on the RMO Campaign website.
