

➤ Phase 1 Materials

Fear of falling

These consequences have a negative impact on an older person's quality of life and can also contribute to an increase in health care costs as people access more health care services [84].

