Services currently provided at Nambour General Hospital

The following is the current list of clinical and support services that are provided at Nambour General Hospital (NGH) post the opening of the Sunshine Coast University Hospital (SCUH) in 2017.

Outpatient Clinics
- General Surgery
- Gynaecology
- Hepatology
- Respiratory
- Dermatology
- Endocrinology
- Orthopaedic
- Infectious Diseases
- General Medicine
- Geriatrics
- Paediatrics
- Rehabilitation
- Maternity and obstetrics (antenatal and midwives)
- Tuberculosis Clinic
- Renal
- Oncology / Haematology
- Allied Health (Dietetics, Occupational therapy, Physiotherapy, Social work, Speech pathology)

Community Integrated and Sub-Acute Services
- Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Health Services (hub)
- BreastScreen Queensland Sunshine Coast Service (hub)
- Extended care services
  - Community Chronic Conditions Service (CCCS)
  - Nurse navigator service
- Hospital in the Home (HITH)
- Oral health
- Sexual health
- Transition services
  - Aged Care Assessment Team (ACAT) (hub)
  - Transition Care Program (TCP)
  - Community Hospital Interface Program (CHIP)
  - Community Support and Rehabilitation Team (CSRT) (hub)

Medical Services
- Acute and Restorative Care Inpatient Unit (hub)
- Cancer services – day oncology chemotherapy and outpatient services
- Day infusion service
- Emergency medicine
- General medicine inpatient, inpatient unit, Medical Assessment and Planning Unit
- Medical imaging (MRI, CT, ultrasound and X-ray)
- Pharmacy
- Renal services – chronic renal dialysis, outpatient and home therapy services
- Transit Unit
- Gastroenterology – day procedures and outpatient services

Mental Health and Addiction Services
- Acute adult inpatient unit
- Community services

Surgical Services
- Anaesthetics
- Central sterilising service
- Elective general and orthopaedic and breast surgery – inpatient and day surgery
- Persistent pain management services (hub)

Women and Families Services
- Maternity and obstetrics – antenatal and midwives outpatient clinic

Clinical and Non-Clinical Support Services
- Building Engineering and Maintenance Service (hub)
- Infection control
- Mortuary (body hold facility)
- Operational services including protective services, porterage, cleaning, food, linen, waste and supply
- Pathology

January 2019