

2019 Queensland Health Data Linkage Symposium

Edwin M Tooth Auditorium
RBWH, Herston*, Brisbane
1:00pm – 4:00pm, 13 November 2019
<https://www.health.qld.gov.au/hsu/datalinkagesymposium>

Program of speakers

TOPIC	PRESENTER	TIME
Symposium opening	Dr Jeannette Young , Chief Health Officer and DDG, Prevention Division, Queensland Health	1:00
Update from Queensland Health Data Linkage Unit and program overview	Dr Trisha Johnston , Director, Statistical Analysis and Linkage Unit, Statistical Services Branch, Queensland Health	1:10
PHRN 10 Year Anniversary –achievements	Dr Merran Smith , Chief Executive, Population Health Research Network, University of Western Australia	1:20
Australian Stroke Clinical Registry – value of linking clinical registry data with administrative health data	Dr Monique Kilkenny , Head, National Stroke Data Linkage Program, Translational Public Health and Evaluation Division Stroke and Ageing Research, Monash University	1:35
Linkage of national health data in Australia	Dr Phil Anderson , Director Health Linkage, Data Strategies and Integration Group, Australian Institute of Health and Welfare	2:00
Questions/discussion –cross-jurisdictional and national linkage projects	Dr Merran Smith, Dr Monique Kilkenny, Dr Phil Anderson	2:25
Data linkage studies in paediatric palliative care	Dr Anthony Herbert , Director Paediatric Palliative Care Service, Children’s Health Queensland and Alison Bowers , PhD candidate, Centre for Children’s Health, Queensland University of Technology	2:40
Use of linked data for health services evaluation projects in Queensland	Prof Steven McPhail , Academic Director, Australian Centre for Health Services Innovation (AusHSI), Institute of Health and Biomedical Innovation, Queensland Institute of Technology	3:05
Using linked data to understand outcomes following hospitalisation for infections in childhood	A/Prof Luregn Schlapbach , Senior Staff Specialist, Paediatric Intensive Care Unit, Children’s Health Queensland	3:30
Symposium close and networking	Stay for a chat with our friendly linkage team ☺	4:00

RBWH Education Centre, Bowen Bridge Rd, Herston (see https://www.health.qld.gov.au/cpcrc/pdf/educncentre_map.pdf)